

WHO ARE ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS?

English language learners (ELLs) are students whose first language is a language other than English, or is a variety of English that is significantly different from the English used in Ontario schools.

- These students may be Canadian-born, newcomers from other countries or visa/international students studying in Canada
- ELL students are enrolled in schools throughout Clarington, Northumberland and Peterborough from JK to Grade 12

SUPPORT FOR ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS IN KPR

ELL Resource Teachers may:

- Conduct an initial assessment of English language proficiency
- Collaborate with school staff from JK to Grade12
- Work with teachers to build capacity in programming, instruction, assessment and evaluation
- Provide direct instructional support for beginning ELL students
- Support the school in monitoring ELL students' progress
