Acknowledgements

Miigwech (thank you—Anishnaabe/Ojibway), Nia:wen (thank you—Kaniakehaka/Mohawk) to the following for their support and input:

Alayne Bigwin, Director, Aboriginal Education Office, Ontario Ministry of Education
Elizabeth Bigwin, Education Officer, Aboriginal Education Office, Ontario Ministry of Education
Sylvia Terpstra, Director, Kawartha Pine Ridge District School Board (KPRDSB)
Kaja Havelka, Superintendent of Education, Teaching and Learning KPRDSB
Carolann Gallant, Principal of Program, KPRDSB
Deborah Kasman, Principal or Special Education KPRDSB
Steve Russell, KPRDSB Instructional Leadership Consultant, Arts and Aboriginal Education
Elizabeth Osawamick, Anishnabekwe, Anishnaabemwin teacher KPRDSB
Marjolaine Lapointe, Anishnabekwe, Anishnaabemwin teacher KPRDSB
Merritt Taylor, Anishnaabenini, Anishnaabemwin teacher KPRDSB
Jan Hill, Kaniakehaka, Dean, First Nation Technical Institute
Dan Longboat, Kaniakehaka, Director, Indigenous Environmental Studies, Trent University
Leslie Woolcott, Equity and Diversity Advisor, KPRDSB-Reflecting on Your Perspective"

KPRDSB Advisory Committee on Native Issues—
Chair/Trustee Brian Cowie, Karrie MacMurray/Hiawatha First Nation, Nancy Marsden/Alderville, Dr. Nicole Bell, Anishnabekwe/School of Education, Trent University, Craig Miles, Principal, Cobourg District & Collegiate Institute West

The following have granted permission for material use and showed overwhelming encouragement to educators to continue to advance our students’ knowledge about the First Peoples of this country.

Alan Corbiere
June Earle, Selah
Four Worlds Centre for Development Learning, Four Worlds Development Project
John Kahionhes Fadden
Mary Lynne Gagne, University of Saskatchewan
Barbara Gray-Kanatiiosh
Metis Nation of Ontario

This booklet is made possible through major support from the Ontario Ministry of Education.